2016–2017 Pittsburgh Opera
Workshops for Educators

Our signature program is a unique and stimulating professional development opportunity for teachers of all grade levels in all content areas. Workshop materials and activities address all 15 PA Academic Standards:

Photo by Krista Reitz

- Arts and Humanities
- Business, Computer and Information Technology
- Career Education and Work
- Civics and Government
- Driver Education
- Economics
- English Language Arts CORE
- Environment and Ecology
- Family and Consumer Sciences
- Geography
- Health, Safety, and Physical Education
- History
- Mathematics CORE
- Science and Technology and Engineering Education
- World Languages

Workshops take place in Pittsburgh Opera's headquarters in the Strip District on Thursdays and Saturdays from 9:00 am–2:00 pm.

La traviata by Giuseppe Verdi	Sep 15 and 17, 2016
Salome by Richard Strauss	Oct 27 and 29, 2016
Richard the Lionheart by George Frideric Handel & As One by Laura Kaminsky	Jan 12 and 14, 2017
Turandot by Giacomo Puccini	Mar 2 and 4, 2017
The Summer King by Daniel Sonenberg	Apr 6 and 8, 2017

$100 Workshop Fee includes:

- Books and Audio-Visual materials
- Breakfast and Lunch
- Connections to Pennsylvania Academic Standards
- Handout packet of ready-to-use opera activities
- Interactive learning environment
- Live performance by opera artists

For more information, contact
Marilyn Michalka Egan, Ph.D., Director of Education
412-281-0912 x242 megan@pittsburghopera.org

Pittsburgh Opera, 2425 Liberty Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15222
www.pittsburghopera.org