

2009-2010 Pittsburgh Opera Opera Academy for Educators

What is Opera Academy?

A stimulating and intensive program, Opera Academy is a unique, year-long professional development experience. Created and tailored for teachers, the Opera Academy is designed to immerse educators into the world of opera and arts integration.

Opera Academy participants have an interest in the arts, desire to learn more about the arts, want to expand their knowledge of operas, or wish to explore connections between academic content areas. Educators from all grade levels and content areas attend full-day workshops, experience a number of operas from a varied repertoire, develop lessons designed to connect the arts to other academic content areas, and prepare students to attend an opera performance.

What Opera Academy participants say:

- "These are the most comprehensive, interesting, and useful workshops I have ever attended. Every topic is fascinating and weaves into the next. You leave us hungry for more!"
- "Always inspiring. Always well done. The enjoyment the opera has brought to me and my students is immeasurable."

Objectives of Opera Academy

- To offer interested educators the opportunity to immerse themselves in opera and opera-related programs so they can integrate opera in their classrooms.
- To form a network among teachers who use opera as an educational tool.
- To provide elementary, middle- and high-school students with first-hand exposure to live performances of opera.
- To develop a consistent set of rubrics and evaluative tools that will allow Pittsburgh Opera and participating educators to analyze the program's impact.
