Pittsburgh, PA...Pittsburgh Opera Resident Artists Danielle Pastin, Dean Kokanos, Jonathan Beyer and Liam Moran accompanied by Mark Trawka, Pittsburgh Opera Director of Musical Studies and Chorus Master will perform some of opera's greatest hits – and a few surprises from Broadway – in the Allegheny County Hartwood Acres Summer Concert Season on Sunday June, 7.

The performance at the Hartwood Acres Amphitheater will include songs and arias from the Verdi and Puccini classics as well as Tchaikovsky's Eugene Onegin, Verdi's Falstaff, Bizet's Carmen and Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro from the upcoming Pittsburgh Opera 2009-2010 season.

The concert will begin at 7:30PM and is free and open to the public.

*Pittsburgh Opera will celebrate its 71st season in 2009-10 with Eugene Onegin, Falstaff, The Rape of Lucretia, Carmen and The Marriage of Figaro. In addition to its mainstage productions, Pittsburgh Opera produces a range of programs to engage and enrich the community with more than 20,000 students, families and educators participating in its educational events annually. The internationally renowned Pittsburgh Opera Resident Artist Program is among the country's top five training centers for rising opera stars and the company's newly designed administrative and rehearsal space, housed in a 140-year-old air brake factory in the city's Strip District, provides space for events ranging from free community Brown Bag concerts to concert recitals by world-class opera singers.*
