Character Themes for The Italian Girl in Algiers

The Heartwood Institute lists seven universal character attributes: Courage, Loyalty, Justice, Respect, Hope, Honesty, and Love.

Discuss two attributes—courage and hope—after reading the synopsis of The Italian Girl in Algiers:

- Courage is not only mastering fear; it is the ability to face difficulty or risk with integrity and honor.
- Hope guides our future through faith and aspiration, helping us to rise above selfishness and despair.

1. How do Isabella, Lindoro, and Taddeo demonstrate courage when they find themselves in unfortunate situations? Is one more courageous than the others?

2. How can Elvira be courageous in a situation that limits her personal freedom? Is her courage justified?

3. Compare the seven principal characters' levels of courage. Whose situation has the most difficulty or risk?

4. Does Elvira hope for a reasonable outcome? When do Elvira and Mustafà exhibit selfishness?

5. Is hope wasted when its vehicle is a slave?
